THE NEWS OF THE WEEK. A Daily Resume of Important Happenings.

The proposition to amend the constitution so as to return to the old viva voce way of voting was over whelmingly defeated. The indications are that the amendment was defeated by over 50,000 votes.

A special from Washington has the following relative to the Paintsville postoffice right:

"One of the hottest postoffice fights Kentucky has witnessed for a long time will result in the removal of Mrs. Tom Kirk, widow of Senator Kirk, postmistress at Paintsville. Local politicians have long been trying to secure her removal. John W. Yerkes, State Chairman Ernst, John W. Langley and other leaders have done everything possible for her out of regard for her late husband. An inspector sent to investigate recommended her removal. They had an investigation, but the second inspector has just made a similar report, and it is said at the Postoffice Department that she will have to go."

Grayson, Ky., Nov. 16.—The Leon Stave and Heading Co.'s dryhouse, Leon, Ky., and a large quantity of finished stock burned. The losses will run up to the thousands, with partial insurance.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 16.—The Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Barker, reversed the Boone Circuit Court in Waverose, etc., vs. Trustees Walton Graded Common School District. Appellant is a boy, arbitrarily expelled from attending the common school. The action was by injunction to compel the trustees to admit the child. This court in reversing says the record shows no violation of the rules of the school, or that the child had not properly conducted himself; further that it does not deny the right of the school board to fix rules for violation of which a child may be expelled, but that the constitution gives the right to a child to attend the common schools and that it must be by proper procedure kept from attendance. If it may be done, which was not shown in this instance. The case is remanded with instructions.

It is reported that an effort will now be made to annex the west end of Carter to Lewis county and then annex a portion of Elliott onto that and then create a new county. A vote will have to be taken on the annexation at the time the two county officers are elected, four years hence. This rumor is published for what it is worth, not knowing the truth of the same.—Grayson Tribune.

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—During the inquiries in the case of John Forkin and Joseph Garcia, laborers, who were killed at the Midvale Steel Works on November 10, it was testified that the two men had entered a pit and that 80,000 pounds of hot metal poured from a leak and completely absorbed them. Not a trace of the bodies of the men was discovered. The steel company has decided to take about 8,000 pounds of the steel from the place where the men last seen and have it buried out of respect of the dead workmen. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

Postoffice robbers, supposedly from Kentucky last Tuesday morning before daybreak looted the postoffice at Copley, W. Va. They blew the safe with dynamite, secured all the money and stamps, took away all letters and fixtures that could be conveniently carried off and left nothing but the building and the wrecked safe. The place is the scene of the operations in which the Dinal and Shamer gangs have been concerned, and it is believed the raiding Kentuckians were out to avenge the capture of the two Dinal boys, who were taken last week near Pittsburg by Inspector Oldfield. Inspectors have been sent out from Cincinnati.

Deftite steps were taken at Winchester for the permanent organization of a State development convention. The executive committee authorized a sub-committee to draft a constitution and by-laws, which will be submitted to the next convention. The Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation heard addresses on different lines of taxation.

The Pennsylvania State Board of Pardons has commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of James W. Ezell, the young Kentuckian recently convicted for murder.

The corner stone of the McKinley monument, the gift of the American people, was laid at Canton, O.

The battleship Kentucky holds the record for having sent a message the longest distance by wireless telegraph.

A vote of 8 to 5 the Board of Consulting Engineers of the Isthmus Canal Commission decided in favor of the sea-level plan for the canal. The foreign engineers said to have turned the favor of the sea-level type.

Charles, of Denmark, was recently elected King of Norway by the Parliament. He appears that he will take the title of King VII, and will confer the name of Olaf on his son.

Lawrence county Fiscal Court asked for a right of way, 100 feet in length, by an electric line, contemplated the construction of a line from Paris to Mt. Sterling.

Burke has certified to the State of New York that during his recent campaign the Mayor were $65,843.

A number of people appeared before the Committee on Revenue and Taxation in Lexington, and the general desire seemed to be the substitution of a license instead of an annual tax.

Mr. Reader, do you know where you can buy a fine suit and overcoat 20 per cent. less than elsewhere?

Robert Burchett has just received a new suit.

Inval Pensions. For many Congresses the Eleventh district has presented this important committee, and Mr. Edwards wants it again. His district contains more old Union soldiers than the other districts of the State combined.

London, Nov. 20.—Without a signal of warning, with never a thought of danger, The Hilda, a cross-channel steamer of the Southwestern Ry., crashed onto the rocks of Jarrow Lighthouse, on the coast of Britain, in a blinding snow storm, and went down with all on board.

More than 120 men and women, many caged in their staterooms by jammed doors, sank to their death with the fated ship. Many, fastening life belts, went over the side into the seething water, only to be dashed to pieces and torn against the jagged boulders of the rock bound coast.

Eleven men were saved. Not one of the women passengers was rescued.

The foreign members of the Board of Consulting Engineers of the Isthmus Canal Commission will meet next January at Brussels instead of Paris. The plan adopted will make Limon Bay one of the greatest harbors in the world. San Cristobal will be the chief city on the Atlantic side and Panama on the Pacific. The cost of the canal is placed at $50,000,000 and it will take fifteen years to build.

A Way With Rabbit.

Some people do not like Rabbit as food, probably because it was not cooked properly. Try it this way. It sounds good, anyhow:

Having to put up a luncheon on short notice and having no cooked meat, I used a nice fat rabbit, Death had snatched its life away. I took the thick, fleshy parts of the backbone, the meat from the bones, pounded it, dipped it in cream, then in flour, and then fried it. It proved a success and is considered as good as chicken by those who have tried it, says a good housewife.

Kentucky Kernels.

Shocking fodder.

Pumpkin pie socials.

Working county roads.

Large acreage of wheat sown.

Many new orchards being planted.

Seed factory burned at Winchester.

Owensboro is to have a bridge over the Ohio.

Warning by farmers to hunters: "Get off my land."

A glass factory is said to be a sure thing for Owensboro.

Settlement school at Hindman recently burned, to be rebuilt.

Another cherry tree in full bloom.

It's in Graves county this time.

Mule breeding industry revived.

High prices and strong demand caused it.

Something wrong at Lexington.

No report of a man found dead.

Clyt Clerk within ten days.

Wolf county school teacher spelled kettle "k-e-e-t-l-e" and got turned down by one of her pupils at spelling bee.

Thirteen year old Charlie Smith, of Mt. Sterling, attempted to cross truck in front of a moving train.

He will live, but crippled for life.

John and Emma Sowe, two small children at Mayville, locked in a room, while mother went to do washing for neighbor. House took fire and children burned to death.

Two hundred and forty tobacco growers of Mason County said to have met and agreed not to raise any tobacco next year.

It is said there are sixty-eight counties in Kentucky in which it is not lawful to sell whisky.

COUNTERFEITING THE GENUINE

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and receive all substitutes offered as an ordinary preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative.

It contains propolis, and is a registered patent from F. D. Bishop, of Mich. Write or see him.

James Hatcher, Democrat and banker of Pikeville, defeated candidate for County Judge of Pike County, is contesting the election of Judge Ford, his opponent. Hatcher charges that the ballot boxes were "stuffed" in a number of precincts. He is in Frankfort preferring charges.

First Lieut. Julian M. Howard, of the Middleboro company organized to suppress lawlessness in that section, died from a pistol wound accidentally inflicted by himself.

Representative Edwards, of Ken-saw, will speak in Frankfort.

A large street light will also be placed at the upper end of the reserve on this street.

THIS would be a comparatively happy world if we did not suffer so much from things that never happen. How our shoulders ache under the weight of burdens we are never called upon to bear! How our hearts are wrung by griefs that never take shape! If no more serious charges could be brought against it, worrying would head the list of follies. It costs us an untold amount of unnecessary misery. It takes away the strength we need for work. In all its record of accomplishments, it is impossible to point to a single good result it has brought about.

EVENINGS AT HOME.

The evening hours are the baly hours of life. They are the hours in which there is the freest play of all the hallowed influences that come from the domestic relation, the hours in which the radiant forces of the home are focalized and brought to their highest efficiency. There is really just as much sunshine on a cloudy day as when the day is clear, but the sickly growth of vegetation during cloudy weather proclaims its ineffectiveness. So the home may exert just as much actual influence when its sunshine is intercepted by the clouds of care and busy toil; when the "father's" dinner must be prepared, or with which some of those many labors inseparably connected with home life must be performed.

Peruna strengthens and restores the nervous system, builds up your worn out constitution and is just what women need who are afflicted with weakness of any kind. I hear nothing but praise for Peruna on all sides. Most of the members of my family have used it and stand by it as a wonderful health giver.

—Miss Adelaide Claire.

Cataract is a Systemic Disease.

Cataract is a systemic disease, curable only by systemic treatment. A remedy that cures cataract maintains directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does. Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then cataract disappears; then it is permanently cured.

Peruna cures the cataract wherever located.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

the germ immortal with God standing guard, ready to bring it forth in good time. The king who comes and spreads his robe of ermine over all, treads, oh so gently, because of the sleeping buds and tender blossoms beneath his feet in their earthly cradle. The awakening time is not yet and they will sleep more sweetly under the ermine robe. Why do we not think of this when our hearts are heavy laden with what has been hidden away from us, remembering that there lives one who never loses sight of our flowers, even though they wither here in the cold blights that come from the sea of pain and the valley of the shadow? He knows they are only resting for a moment, to come to a more marvelous growth in the gardens that are sunkissed eternally, and whose flowers know no winter time for sleep. The earth flowers come back to us from under the winter's snow—and we are of more value than they. The little birds that build their homes in the heights and hide in the clouds come back, when they hear of the spring's new birth or resurrection—and we are of more value than they. We, too, will awaken from the sleep that closes the weary eyes just long enough for the angel in waiting to bear us over the bar into the eternal summer of that "Morning Land" of which it is said, "and there shall be no night there" neither any snow, or pitiless rain is needed to kill and make alive. From the depths will come forth the hidden treasures. Dead, we gain of them, but not so. Like a gem that refuses to sparkle is hidden for a time from the light until it regains its brilliancy, so our jewels have been hidden from us, to be given back perfect and a setting that glows with immortality, and our flowers will bloom again when the angel's whisper awakens them to a vision of skies fairer than ours, breezes softer, and sunshine that never is hidden. From under the snow of earth into the eternal summer of heaven.

The same all-prevailing Power, whose handiwork jeweled the heavens with stars, who leveled the plains, who lifted up the mountains and taught the rivers to run down to the sea, designed our being and contemplated our destiny.

What it shall be we do not know.

How it shall come we cannot tell.

Whether it shall come as the old prophets thought, amid the clash of words or wreck of matter; or as the gentle beauty of a May morning we cannot see, but it will come.

It will be just as easy for this world to end as it was for it to begin; and there is much greater reason for the ending than there is for the beginning.

The inequality of this world must be somewhere adjusted. How wrong is sometimes triumphant, insolent power occasionally victorious and undimensioned virtue misjudged and misunderstood.

As surely as the sun shines, the time will come when the one will be punished, and the other rewarded, and when equal and exact justice, the most glorious phrase known to man, shall be meted out to all.

HOME is, or should be, the nucleus around which all the beautiful and precious elements of home life cluster—the shrine where the sacred things of heart and soul are treasured as at a precious and inestimable. No man or woman can know perfect happiness in an earthly sense, who has not known the charm of a sweet and peaceful home. True there are instances when in the midst of home happiness and misery the soul looks up to the home eternal in the heavens and is comforted and strengthened, but even in this they have never realized the beauty of this earthly life.

To every temple there is an architect—a builder whose taste and skill like the lamp of Aladdin, shall create all its beauty and harmony.

In the temple of home there is one master spirit, not the robust priest who offers gifts to the Gods, but the true and noble woman who gives hand and heart and life to the exercise of virtues which make it a truly happy home.

We have beautiful arms of men's boys' and children's overcoats for the least money to be found anywhere.

FRIDAY, November 24, 1905.

The Washington Post declares Folk of Missouri and Jerome of New York, could sweep the country in 1908.

A newspaper chap speaks of the "succulent" perennial. His mouth must have puckered at the thought.

The second trial of United States Senator Burton, of Kansas, charged with accepting outside compensation while a Senator, is in progress at St. Louis.

The whole State will hear with sincere regret of the serious illness of Mr. John G. Carlisle, whose public career brought such honor to Kentucky.

An inheritance tax law will, it is said, be a feature of the measure to be presented to the General Assembly by the Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

A candidate for the legislature in a sea-board State can speak to the voters in thirty-four languages. All a man with plenty of money has to do is make signs.

State Superintendent James H. Fugua, in his report to the General Assembly, will urge establishing a normal school at Frankfort. It has been suggested that the old Capitol buildings be used for this purpose.

The conference of Kentucky Republican leaders in Washington yesterday in regard to the Federal offices was without result, and another meeting will be held next month after the opening of Congress.

An apple from a tree at least 125 years old was brought to the American office this week by Josiah H. Higgins of Ellsworth, Ex.

It was probably in the shade of the old apple tree that the man was sitting when he wrote this "beautiful" song.

At a meeting of the Democratic members of the Louisville delegation to the Kentucky delegation held yesterday, a letter was drafted calling upon W. B. Haldeman to enter the race for the United States Senate and assuring him of the delegation's undivided support. Mr. Haldeman will probably give a final and favorable answer in a few days.

The list of dead and injured as a result of the hunting season has been greatly increased during the past two days. The Chicago Record-Herald reports from all over the country show thirty deaths and thirty-three injured from hunting accidents to date. These numbers include the Keown boy killed in Hancock county, and the two men wounded in Davies county on Wednesday. To this must be added the boy, Charles Reed, who was accidentally killed Friday near Mt. Sterling.

Important Changes.

Important changes in the present laws providing for the raising of revenue, collection of taxes and assessment of property in Kentucky will be made in the new law to be framed by the Special Legislative Committee on Revenue and Taxation, which has been at work for the last year and a half. The most important change will be in regard to the assessment of real and personal property. It is probable that one section of the new law will provide for assessments on real property only once every four or six years, as is now the law in several other States. In the assessment of personal property the law will be framed, if possible, so that the necessity for revenue agents will be avoided, all personal property will be listed for taxation and the State, county and city will enjoy a revenue from this source.

The main idea of the committee in framing the new law is to reduce cost of the collection of taxes. The committee think the cost is now too great and that it can be easily reduced with better results. The idea, which has been suggested, and which has been favorably received, is to have only one Tax Collector in each county and have him do all the work of collecting the taxes, instead of having two or three, as is the case in some counties.

For Norfolk and Western Connection-Surveys have been made by the Wise Terminal Company, of Glengary, Va., for a connection with the Norfolk and Western at Norton. Following the Gauley River for a short distance, the proposed line then crosses the mountains to a connection with the proposed line of the Chesapeake and Ohio through this region. It will open to development coal and timber lands to which at present there is no access.

Reported Changes

Washington Nov. 18.—An attempt will be made by the Kentucky Republican leaders, Representatives Edwards and Bennett, Internal Revenue Commissioner Yerkes and Coalman Richard P. Ernst to settle practically all the big Federal offices. Judge H. Clay McKee, of Mt. Sterling, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Tenth Congressional district. He was formerly a Democrat.

Huntington, W. Va., November 27.—For the alleged obtaining of money from United States pensioners under the pretense of having their pensions increased Harry Meadows was arrested at Logan to-day.

Last Wednesday night the house of Ed Fluty, who lives on the border of Martin county, near Lawrenceburg, was burned with all its contents. Alton Copley, Jr., of Inez, hardly escaped by jumping from a second-story window.

Mr. Sterling, Nov. 21.—The Eva Clay Fresh farm of 400 acres was sold at auction for $12,149.47. The purchasers were A. B. Hamilton and W. B. Wills, of Clark county. The price is the largest ever paid in this county for a farm at auction.

The Licking River Lumber Company a Chicago firm that owns the narrow-gauge Licking River railroad, which runs from Salt Lick, Bartholomew county, to Blackwater, Morgan county, a distance of sixty miles, is preparing to extend the road further into the Eastern Kentucky coal fields.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 21.—Parish Attornet of Salvysville, Magoffin county, a former member of the state legislature and sheriff of his county, came here and submitted to a X-ray examination for the purpose of locating a bullet he received in a fight eight years ago. If successful in locating the leaden missile, which is imbedded in his hip bone, an operation will be performed to extract it.

Another cripple is added to the deplorably large list of Ashland's maimed small boys. Freddie Compton, the thirteen-year-old son of Henry Compton, while on his way to school with some companions, Friday morning, became mixed up with C. C. and freight train near 19th street and had his left foot crushed.

He was taken to the office of Dr. W. O. Phillips, in the Adams Express wagon, and from there to the Kipp's Daughters' hospital where the leg was amputated. Ashland Indians sent.

In addition to the big offices, however, the Kentucky Republicans now have on their hands two of the worst postoffice cases the Department has handled during this administration. They have been fighting over them for several months.

Miss Kate Reid, who is postmaster at Beattyville, and Mrs. Edna Kirk, who is postmaster at Paintsville, have both been recommended for their offices. T. B. Blakley, the Republican referee in the Tenth district, by virtue of a defeat for Congress recommended J. H. Hammons for postmaster and then change his endorsement to Miss R. Beatty. In the meantime Yerkes and Ernst had endorsed Hammons and are reported to be indignant over Blakley's action.

In Paintsville Yerkes and Ernst are trying to hold in office the incumbent, who is the widow of the late Senator Kirk. In case they do not succeed W. H. Vaughan may get the place.

It is all a very fine mess and it is no wonder that Messrs. Yerkes and Ernst want matters settled at once, especially if they can get them settled their way.

THE BIG BLAINE EXCHANGE.

Is a dealer in raw furs and hides of all grades. I pay 18c for dried flint hides. For veal calf skin, wet salt, 14c. Great demand for green beef hides, and I will pay in proportion to price for dried flint.

The world cannot beat my prices for raw furs. I will mention a few: Black Mink, from $3.00 to $350. Brown mink in proportion; long wool jamb skins, 50c; sheep skins from 18c to $1.00; black skunk skins, No. 1, $1.50.

For opossum hides I pay the highest prices in Blaine Valley.

Some of my selling prices of groceries and hardware: No. 2 home and mule shoes, 1c a round No. 2, 18c. Smoked bacon, clear sides, 9c lb. Dried salt less. Leaf Lard, 9c lb. 9 eggs buy a round of No. 2 horse shoes at the Exchange. I run a butcher shop in connection with my store.

Come and buy where you will be appreciated. I want fat hogs and cattle. Goods come and go daily.

THE LEADING STORE AT BIG BAINE.

T. V. PACK, Proprietor.

H. J. PACK, Manager.

LOST:—A heavy black overcoat, almost new. Might have left it on train to 32, Nov. 14. A liberal reward to the finder. J. F. Hatten, Buchanan, Ky.

In Paintsville Yerkes and Ernst are trying to hold in office the incumbent, who is the widow of the late Senator Kirk. In case they do not succeed W. H. Vaughan may get the place.

It is all a very fine mess and it is no wonder that Messrs. Yerkes and Ernst want matters settled at once, especially if they can get them settled their way.

Mr. Sterling, Nov. 21.—The Eva Clay Fresh farm of 400 acres was sold at auction for $12,149.47. The purchasers were A. B. Hamilton and W. B. Wills, of Clark county. The price is the largest ever paid in this county for a farm at auction.

The Licking River Lumber Company a Chicago firm that owns the narrow-gauge Licking River railroad, which runs from Salt Lick, Bartholomew county, to Blackwater, Morgan county, a distance of sixty miles, is preparing to extend the road further into the Eastern Kentucky coal fields.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 21.—Parish Attornet of Salvysville, Magoffin county, a former member of the state legislature and sheriff of his county, came here and submitted to a X-ray examination for the purpose of locating a bullet he received in a fight eight years ago. If successful in locating the leaden missile, which is imbedded in his hip bone, an operation will be performed to extract it.

Another cripple is added to the deplorably large list of Ashland's maimed small boys. Freddie Compton, the thirteen-year-old son of Henry Compton, while on his way to school with some companions, Friday morning, became mixed up with C. C. and freight train near 19th street and had his left foot crushed.

He was taken to the office of Dr. W. O. Phillips, in the Adams Express wagon, and from there to the Kipp's Daughters' hospital where the leg was amputated. Ashland Indians sent.

In addition to the big offices, however, the Kentucky Republicans now have on their hands two of the worst postoffice cases the Department has handled during this administration. They have been fighting over them for several months.

It is quite the fashion with the vain-glorious and bigoted press north to Ohio river to publish with alarming headings and double-leaded paragraphs an account of any disorder, of whatever description, that occurs in Kentucky. Actual occurrences and magnified and distorted, when these fall, the columbiator and falsifier is ready, for a few pieces of silver, to furnish the material for a ready and willing paper. The recent campaign was a fruitful field for those who rush into the newspapers with blood curdling narratives. There was some disorder in this State, and, if what we read be true there was a great deal in some other States. Much of what has recently been published concerning "killings in Kentucky," is a lie manufactured out of the cloth furnished to the associated press for pay. A notable case in point is the "Killing of Five men in Beaver Village." There is no Beaver Village in Johnson county, or in any other county in this State, neither were five men, nor any number of men killed in Johnson county nor any other county in Kentucky as a result of an election or any other sort of a bet. The simple truth is that the recent election in this State was an exceedingly orderly one.

Contrast our election with the election in the City of New York, with the other cities in the State to hear from.

Note the results, as shown by the World's pen picture of scenes at Hearst headquarters after the polls closed:

"Men, battered and bruised, were helped by friends into the rooms. One man had a broken arm dangling in his sleeve. Another's head had been cut open and the blood was trickling through his bandages. Tammany thugs in the lower East Side districts had all but killed them."

To John Palmieri, candidate for Judge of the Court of Special Sessions on the Municipal Ownership ticket, he is in a hospital severely injured as the result of an attack upon him at the polls. He escaped a bullet fired at him, only to be set upon and beaten.

"Joseph Cody, candidate for Sheriff, was saved only by his own great strength and ability to fight the crowd that set upon him."

From many parts of Manhattan reports poured in of the greatest violence and crimes at the polls that New York had ever known.

That Kentucky elections are often bloody is due to the active interest of Kentuckians in all political campaigns. To this, and not to the fact that in this State politics so frequently calls to mind Judge Jewell's definition of politicks, or going back further to history, Gen. Sherman's definition of war.

Masks and Pies.

A New R. F. D. Route.

It has been suggested that if the people living on or near the route shall presently mention will use reasonable and proper effort they can establish a free postal delivery and collection service. And if the people only knew the value of such a service they would not be slow in their efforts to secure it.

The route in our mind would begin at the Louisa office, of course, and embrace the region lying around the road down the river to the gap near the Crabtree place and thence through Arnett's to Fallsburg. Then from Fallsburg to Yatesville, and from Yatesville back to Louisa through the Deep Hole and Two Mile country. The NEWS does not say that this is the best or the most practicable route, but it is very near it. It goes through a thickly settled country and the free delivery would be of great value to the people.

R. B. Payne, a C. & O. detective a post-office inspector and a U. S. Marshal, from Huntington, were in Louisa Monday night. They had been to Copley, W. Va., three miles from Louisa, where the post-office had recently been robbed, and secured ample proof for the conviction of the men arrested in Ashland by Detective Payne. Money and stamps had been taken from the post-office and a neighboring store had suffered the loss of quite an amount of portable goods.

It is said they are professional burglars. Thus have members of this nefarious profession again made the mistake of doing business on Big Sandy, with the same fate as all the other "furners" who have tried it.

J. C. Adams, Charley Holbrook and Dr. York, who went to Charleson Friday to assist in the initiation of some fellow brethren, which occurred Friday night, are lavish in their praises of West Virginia hospitality. Never have they had such a royal good time. An elegant banquet was served, and taking it all together they had a royal good time, and the Charleston Shriners certainly know how to entertain. A number of Shriners from Ashland and Huntington and Catlettsburg, shared the good time with our Louisa Shriners.

The marriage of Mrs. Nannie Hays to Mr. Forrest L. Stewart, both of Louisville, is announced for Tuesday, Nov. 28th. The wedding will be attended only by the immediate relatives, and soon after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will make quite a royal tour of the States.

Mrs. Hays is a sister of Senator elect M. G. Watson, and Mr. Stewart is a member of one of the leading law firms of this city.

Oscar Graham, of Cherokee, left yesterday morning for California, whither he goes in search of health. At Fullers he was joined by Dr. W. A. Rice and daughter, of Fallsburg. Miss Rice is also going to California in the hope that in that salubrious region she may regain her health. Dr. Rice goes with the party, and the NEWS wishes them a safe journey and the fruition of their hopes.

Gas pipe is being laid from the Engineer office to the government property across the river. The houses are piped and large outdoor lights will be placed in front. A large street light will also be placed at the upper end of the reserve on this side.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these fears. In form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such a change is not warranted by the effects which this change produces in the mind of a woman; no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have a "Favorable Prescription" do not suffer from the change of life. They are not face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health of the organs peculiarly affected. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which it has, the "Favorable Prescription" saves the "ay" for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or the inability to enjoy life.

"Favorable Prescription" brings safety through that difficult period, called "change of life," writes Mrs. Mary McCormick, of New York, in the "Medical Review." This change made a very unpleasant disturbance in my entire system. I had such a desire to get away from home, excited, irritable, nervous and irritable. My appetite was bad and for days I was unable to find any food that I could recommend your "Favorable Prescription" as a grand medicine for women.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.

See that this picture is the focus of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.
